drawn several posters for the C.O.N.I. (Italian Olympic Committee) and the F.I.R. (Italian Rugby Federation). He has also taken part in numerous competitive examinations, winning many prizes. He has been given recognition by scholars, critics and collectors, taking part in several collective and one-man exhibitions in important European towns such as: Verona, Bergamo, Milan, Venice, Brescia, Pescara, Cremona, Mantua, Desenzano, Sirmione, Rovigo, Piacenza, Como, Florence, Rome, Paris, London, Novy Jicin, Gorlitz, Pribor, Darmstadt, Fulnek and many others. Important newspapers, magazines, radio and TV networks have written and spoken about his art works.

Who is the Italian artist, Roberto Formigoni, fan and curator of the itinerant exhibitions dedicated to Cavellini? (See web site:

Roberto Formigoni was born in Brescia in 1939. A painter and designer, he has been on the professional artists' register in Rome since 1961. Since 1962, he has worked with various forms of art, including glass melting and clay modelling using the traditional Raku technique. Since 1993 he has been a member of Unie Vytvarnich Umelcu Valassko of Prague, as well as a councillor of the A.A.B. (Associazione Artisti Bresciani). As an international designer for sports activities, he has drawn several exercises for the C.O.N.I. (Italian
